

Oracle Reading Ceremony

Connecting to the Divine

In Peru the coca leaf has a rich and important history. Many Peruvians are valuing the leaves as highly as gold. The Incas treasured coca not only for its medicinal properties, but also for the integral part it played in their sacred rituals. South Americans has cultivated coca plants for nearly 8,000 years.

A legend often told in the Andes shares the tale of Kuka, a woman who used her charms to take advantage of men. When the Great Inca heard of her misdeeds he ordered her sacrifice. After her burial a miraculous plant sprouted from her grave. The people called it Coca, in honor of the beautiful Kuka. This myth acknowledges the great importance that coca leaves had in the Inca Culture and History and continues to have in Peru today.

In this ceremony the spiritual Andean Masters are communicating with the Gods through the oracle or coca-leave readings. It is a very ancient and from generation to generation passed down Art of the Andean culture and it is a unique experience.

Description

Angel, the shaman, opens the ceremony with a prayer to the mountains and the Gods with the Oracle-Mesa. In a private conversation with you Angel wants to get to know more about you concerning your home, your life, your health, your family and friends and also your profession. During this conversation you have the possibility to ask your questions or to tell him what you want to know. After he is opening the Oracle-Mesa carefully and is starting to use the Coca-leaves or Oracle-stones. How they are lying on the ground are giving the shaman direct information and he can translate it into your language.

Angel, who is trained in these techniques from Masters of the Andes, uses different Oracles. This can be coca-leaves, sacred fire, runes, stones-, shells, seeds or other ways. Each shaman is working with his individual oracles and will decide on site with which one he will work. Therefore it is not possible to book a specific oracle reading.
